

Janet Jungermann

Volunteer of the Month

Janet is a member of our guest services where she greets with the best hugs and the most amazingly warm smiles. She is on the Woman's ministry council as well as a leader in our Meal ministry. Janet has a passion for women and loves to spend time in fellowship with them over wonderful meals. She is driven by encouraging woman in their God-given purposes and supporting them with all God has given her to do so. She is known for her amazing smile, honesty, bubbly personality, easy-going nature, willingness to serve, and love for her family and longtime friends.

Janet attends New Life with her husband, Jeff and three children Kayla, Kelsey, and Luke.

Along with serving, Janet loves to travel, indulge in Dove chocolate, play Liverpool Rummy with her family, enjoy lunches with her sorority sisters, and read Janet Evanovich mysteries.

When you see her please join us @ New Life by telling her thank you for her God honoring, love filled, serving heart.
